MISSION STATEMENT

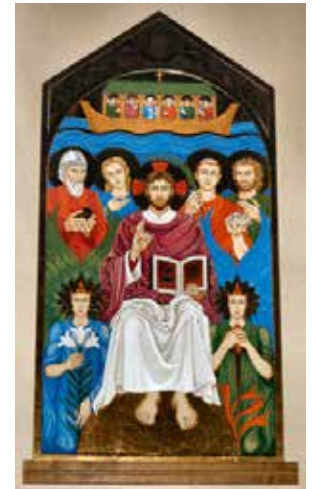

We, the members of the Episcopal Church of the Epiphany, strive to be an open and welcoming spiritual family, committed to sharing in God's goodness both within and beyond this community of faith. We will serve God through worship, stewardship, learning, involvement and the warmth of holy friendship, walking the way of Christ.

All are welcome here!

The Season of All Saints

The Very Rev. Melissa McCarthy

I am writing to you from my favorite coffee shop on Halloween morning. All Hallows' Eve seems to have moved from a one night celebration of tiny ghosts and goblins in search of treats to an entire season of fright. Zombies, vampires, mummies, and various other dead things, graveyards emitting spine chilling music, foggy nights, and all that our minds can conjure as images of terror are everywhere. All of this from All Hallow's Eve, which, in fact, is the eve of All Saints Day.

All Saints Day is the Church's way of remembering all of those exemplary Christians whose faith-filled lives are an inspiration to us. We remember them not because they are perfect people. They aren't perfect people. They do not work miracles on our behalf. They are not closer to God than us. We remember them because something about the way they lived, in all of their imperfect humanity, shows us something about what it means to be a person of faith. On All Saints Day we celebrate the communion of saints, the whole Body of Christ in the past, in the present, and in the future. We are in communion with those who have gone before and those who come after us, united in a common purpose of sharing the love and grace of God with the world.

It is no accident that our season of stewardship comes at this time of year. Stewardship is the Church's way of talking about what we do with what we have been given by God. All that we have comes from God. Everything. Stewardship is about how we use the resources we have been given to honor God and one another, and to grow in our faith in and relationship with God. If it were not for the good stewardship of those who came before us, we would not be where we are today: as local as the Church of the Epiphany, founded in 1980, by a small group of visionaries who saw a need and filled it, to as far back as the first Christians and their commitment to founding a church where forgiveness and love were primary. I give thanks for all that these saints of God have given so that I may receive such blessing in the community of the church.

Likewise, it is our turn to ensure the blessings we have received are there for generations to come. Epiphany is a special place. It is a place of welcome. It is a place where you can come as you are, wherever you are on your journey of faith, and find God, find others like you on the journey, and find a safe place for your soul to explore, grow, and be transformed. I encourage you to consider the contribution you make to this great church of ours and to pray about what more you may be able to give. The Church exists today because every person matters and every contribution matters. That includes you, and me, and everyone at Epiphany.

I give thanks to God for all of you, for the gift of serving God through ministry at Epiphany, and for all that you have given me.

With prayers for peace and many blessings,

The Very Rev. Melissa McCarthy

EPIPHANY MUSIC GUILD

recitals, concerts, choral services

CHORAL EVENSONG, RECITAL & RECEPTION SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 2013, 5:00 P.M.

Festival Choral Evensong for All Saints' Sunday, presented by the Epiphany Parish Choir and Schola, will include choral works by Ernest Bullock, Richard Shephard, Charles Villiers Stanford, and Ralph Vaughan Williams.

After Evensong, pianist Marina Grozdanovic returns to Epiphany to present a recital with works by Mozart, Chopin, and Debussy. A free-will offering will be received at the Evensong service; the recital is free. Reception to follow.

The Epiphany Music Guild supports musical activities at The Church of the Epiphany and underwrites musical events that serve as cultural and social opportunities for the community.

The Guild is only able to exist and serve through the generous contributions of individuals. Please consider getting involved and making a tax-deductible donation.

CONCERT & RED DOOR VINEYARD WINE ADVENTURE

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 2013, 5:00 P.M.

Trio Céleste

Violinist Iryna Krechkovsky and pianist Kevin Kwan Loucks return to Epiphany, this time with cellist Ross Gasworth, as the piano trio known as Trio Céleste. Based in Orange County, California, this ensemble has quickly established itself as one of the most exciting young chamber music ensembles in the country. Recently appointed Artists-in-Residence at the Claire Trevor School of the Arts at UC Irvine and winners of the prestigious 2013 Beverly Hills Auditions, they will perform an exciting array of chamber music favorites by Dvořák, Piazzolla, and Beethoven. Also returning to Epiphany is the 1689 Stradivarius violin, valued in the millions, on loan to Iryna as a competition prize from the Canada Council Musical Instrument Bank.

Members of the Music Guild and members of the Vineyard Guild may receive complimentary tickets to this event by contacting the music office at (818) 991-4797 ext. 26 or music@tcote.org. For other guests, the suggested donation for admission is $25 for adults, $15 for seniors, and $5 for students and children. The wine tasting and culinary delicacies are complimentary.

ADVENT LESSONS & CAROLS

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 8, 2013, 5:00 P.M.

The Festival of Advent Lessons and Carols is a service of worship that celebrates the birth of Jesus, traditionally followed at Christmas. The story of the fall of humanity, the promise of the Messiah, and the birth of Jesus is told in nine short Bible readings from Genesis, the prophetic books and the Gospels, interspersed with the singing of Christmas carols, hymns and choir music. We invite you to come and join us in this joyful Festival as we pray, sing and reflect. Come and prepare your hearts and minds for the coming birth of our Savior Jesus Christ together with the Epiphany community!

CHORAL EVENSONG, RECITAL & RECEPTION

SUNDAY, JANUARY 12, 2014, 5:00 P.M.

Solemn Choral Evensong for the Feast of the Epiphany, presented by the Epiphany Schola, will include a cappella early choral works by William Boyce, Thomas Attwood, Giovanni Pierluigi da Palestrina, Henry Purcell, and Thomas Tallis.

After Evensong, a recital of traditional Persian music by Misaq Es-haghi and Matin Es-haghi will feature primarily improvised music on the instruments known as tombak, kamancheh, daf, and tar. A freewill offering will be received at the Evensong service; the recital is free. Reception to follow.

Proper 26 - Luke 19:1-10

Sunday, November 3, 2013

*Zacchaeus, hurry and come down;
for I must stay at your house today*

Zacchaeus was rich and powerful. But he was powerful in a problematic way: his wealth came from his work as a tax collector for the Roman occupiers of Israel. You've probably already noticed that the gospel writers use the term "tax collector" as an insult, often linking it with "prostitute" or the more generic "sinner" – collecting taxes for Rome was not a way to win friends. People might have been scared of the amount he might assess them, and they must have hated his collaboration with their foreign overlords. Some tax collectors skimmed money off the top of their assessments. Zacchaeus may have been one of them. Add to this the fact that Zacchaeus seems to have been exceptionally short in stature: scripture hardly ever mentions what people looked like, but this physical fact about Zacchaeus has clung to him throughout the centuries!

So: a man with an unpopular job, with a physical appearance unusual enough to make him the butt of many an unkind joke in that town. We don't really know much about what kind of person Zacchaeus was on the inside, before meeting Jesus, but something about his spontaneous pledge makes us suspect the worst: "if I have defrauded anyone of anything." It's hard to credit that "if" – people usually know it when they've defrauded someone.

Nonetheless, Jesus will bless Zacchaeus' home with his presence. Knowing Zacchaeus to be a flawed human being does not stop Jesus from reaching out to him. He is ready to bless Zacchaeus now, before he's had a chance to make any of the amends he promises, and this experience of Jesus' unconditional love makes the tax collector want to turn his life around. He wants to become worthy of his blessings. He'll still be a short guy, I guess. Nothing wrong with that. But he's about to grow a great deal as a human being.

We don't meet Zacchaeus again in the pages of the New Testament, so we don't know if he was able to keep his promise: "half of my possessions, Lord, I will give to the poor." We do know that he found joy if he did: nobody finds lasting happiness hoarding money, and even the beautiful things it can buy are not enough to secure us joy. You find your joy in giving it away.

Interim Rector, St Luke's Episcopal Church

Reflection Questions

- How is giving a response to God's blessings?
- How do you experience joy in giving?
- How does giving help you grow into the person God created you to be?

OUTREACH AT EPIPHANY

“Provide opportunities for the Church of the Epiphany to reach out locally, nationally and globally so that we may grow, mature and become more fully the people Christ calls us to be.”

November and December are busy months for the Outreach Committee. We will be working on two events Adopt a Family and the Cookie Exchange.

ADOPT A FAMILY FOR CHRISTMAS – NOVEMBER 24TH

Each holiday season Lutheran Social Services asks Epiphany to provide gifts for families who would otherwise go without. This year they have asked us to provide for 21 families who have a total of 82 children. On November 24th the Adopt A Family Tree will go up in the Bishop’s Hall. Tags for each child/adult will give the age/sizes and four suggestions for one gift for each tag. Epiphany’s generosity was so evident last year that all tags were taken the first Sunday the tree was up. Gift cards for groceries and other items were also donated. Instructions for where and when to return the gifts will be provided when the tags are taken. If you have questions about Adopt A Family and/or would like to help set up and/or collect and deliver the gifts to LSS, contact Karen James: 818-991-4797 x21, kjames@tcote.org or Mary Lehr: 818-707-6944, marylehr@aol.com.

COOKIE EXCHANGE – DECEMBER 15TH

Christmas Cookies for Colorado

This year our festive annual event will reach out to the victims of the disastrous floods in Colorado. Episcopal Relief is extending long term support to families and congregations through their US Disaster Relief Program. Bake your favorite cookies or don’t bake and just buy these holiday treats. Price is $5/dozen. Give the gift of support to flood victims while preparing for your own Christmas gatherings. The cookies will be on sale after the morning services on December 15th. You can have your coffee while selecting your cookies. We need cookie bakers, sellers, and wrappers. Please sign up to help. This event is a lot of fun. CONEJO COMPASSION COALITION (CCC)

In August 2013 the Conejo Compassion Coalition completed a major expansion of the medical clinic which was first opened in 2009 in eastern Uganda. The new 4,800 sq. ft. building is more than 3 times the size of the previous facility and better equipped to the needs of the patients and staff. The new building contains a spacious outpatient clinic, a pharmacy, two exam rooms, an emergency room, a laboratory and facilities to house up to 24 in patients. This medical centre, located in the village of Lwaboba has now become the only health centre of Grade III or higher, in Bumasiye sub-county, and has capacity to serve many surrounding villages, including the neighboring Tororo district.

The grand opening ceremony on August 17, 2013 was attended by a team of 6 CCC members and representatives from the Canadian based Scott Smed Foundation which provided significant funding for the project. Local representatives included: the Mbale District Chairman, a Member of Parliament, a representative from the Ugandan Ministry of Health and several local political leaders. Planning is currently underway to add an operating room and a maternity ward to further enhance the medical services provided to the region.

Epiphany CHILDREN'S MINISTRY

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd - "Let the children come."

Tel: Church: 818-991-4797 ext. 25 Home: 805-498-4640 kjames@tcotes.org

WHAT ARE THE CHILDREN DOING?

What thoughts do the words "Sunday school" conjure up for you? Does Sunday school bring back memories of rote learning Bible verses, singing songs about "Counting our blessings" (even when we were not sure what they were?) Is it listening to the retelling of Old Testament stories about floods and fights with giants? Or, is it a church based babysitting service so the rest of us can worship in peace? Have you ever wondered, "What are the children doing?"

Well actually, in our Children's Ministry, we are doing exactly what everyone else is doing at Epiphany. We are building our personal relationship with God through worship, prayer, meditation, and fellowship within our church community.

In the nursery, the youngest children are cared for by church members. We offer stories and toys that are both secular and religious. Cynthia O'Rourke and other volunteers, who work on a roster, are in the small room off the Bishop's Hall. So if you have a child aged 6 months to 3 years, please try out the nursery for them. They will be welcomed and cared for, and you will be able to be fully present for worship. In our two Atria, The Good Shepherd Atrium and The True Vine Atrium, we use Catechesis of The Good Shepherd (CGS). This Montessori based program is rich in the words of Scripture and the traditions of our faith.

Ellen Gury is one of two Catechists who work in The Good Shepherd Atrium. Ellen is certified in the CGS Level I formation training, and has been involved with CGS at Epiphany for over 2 years. She is also a member of our Altar Guild Ministry. Ellen shared this about her work as a Catechist: "Our children at Epiphany are so fortunate to have the opportunity to be involved in Catechesis of the Good Shepherd; I wish my own children had. Interacting with stories in the words of the Bible, children use materials to construct meaning for themselves."

In addition, the children use materials from the rituals of the church to understand and experience what they see in the Eucharist. Music joyfully supports and enhances the content. Not only is spiritual growth evident in the children, but I have experienced it myself preparing for being in the atrium and volunteering in the atrium. The intensive course training covers the Montessori philosophy as well as Biblical and Liturgical content. My knowledge of all those areas was challenged and expanded. It is a joy to spend time with your children in the atrium.

So take the opportunity at coffee time to ask one of the children about Catechesis. Those of you who have children or grandchildren, talk to them about their experiences. I am sure most of them will have something to say that will put a smile on your face and help you 'Count your Blessings.'

The Epiphany Youth Group 1 (EYG 1), grades 6, 7, 8, and 9, meets on the 1st and 3rd Sunday of each month. Meetings are from 11:45 a.m. to 1:30 p.m., unless otherwise specified in the EYG weekly newsletter. On the first Sunday of each month we have Youth Gathering. Youth Gathering always begins with music, so bring your singing voice and a musical instrument if you play one! Each Youth Gathering has a theme that is our focus for learning and discussion. We also share a meal and play games. On the third Sunday of each month we build on the theme discussions at Youth Gathering with a Christ Building Activity. Christ Building Activities are challenging group activities where the group must create a solution to a problem by working together.

If you have any questions, comments, or suggestions please contact The Rev. Brian O'Rourke at borourke@tcote.org

EDUCATION FOR MINISTRY

Want to spend your Monday evenings with the coolest group at TCOTE? We study the Bible like theologians, have our perceptions challenged as we apply our faith to our daily life, spend time in worship, enjoy fellowship, and share food and wine. What is not to love? For more information contact Elizabeth Bryant, Vince Castellana, or Karen James.

As our vines continue to grow and reach to the sky, the Vintner's Board of the Red Door Vineyard Guild invites you to become a part of this new and visionary ministry. Located on the property situated above and behind the buildings on the Epiphany campus, the Vineyard has become a unique symbol of our fellowship and our faith.

CULTIVATE AND CONNECT

The mission of the Red Door Vineyard (RDV) Guild is to support and cultivate our community through working the soil, tending vines, harvesting grapes, and crafting wine. Guild members work together to dig, tend, trim, weed, harvest and crush, all the while deepening and exploring our connection with our inner selves, our neighbors, our community and the earth.

BELONG AND PARTICIPATE

All are invited to become RDV Guild members. Guild members enjoy the benefits of the Guild based on their level of giving. Beyond their gifts of treasure, Guild members will be encouraged to participate by joining together and laboring toward common goals.

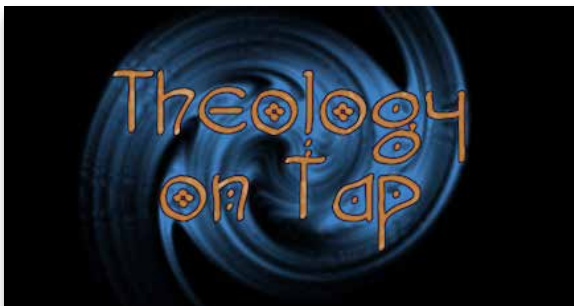

Vineyard work is suitable for the whole family, including children, as we work on the hillside among the vines. Other important work will take place at a desk or computer, organizing Guild members and events, or engaging the broader community in our endeavors. Whether giving of your time, talents or treasure, all participate together, laboring toward common goals, with an awareness of community and an assurance of belonging - indeed, all are welcome here.

VINTNER'S BOARD

FELLOWSHIP & LEARNING

FELLOWSHIP MEALS

All are welcome to Sunday Fellowship Lunches and Friday Fellowship Dinners. This fall the Family Dinners we had last year have evolved into Fellowship Meals. We want to make it clear that all are welcome at our Fellowship Meals; young, old, families, single, members of Epiphany, and those who are not members of Epiphany.

Friday Fellowship Dinners and Sunday Fellowship Lunches are community potluck meals together. There will also be an activity or performance or speaker at each gathering. Please join us! Look for reminders in the weekly email update, on Facebook, and in your service bulletin, and don't forget to sign up on the Epiphany website if you are coming!

Fellowship Meal Dates:

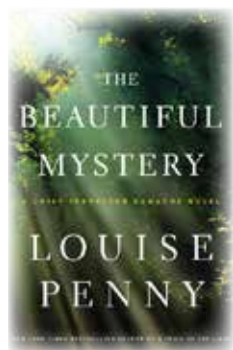

November 22 Friday Fellowship Dinner 6:00 p.m.

Come join in the fun as we work together to prepare for the holiday season. We will share in a meal in our usual potluck style while we work together on some fun activities. There will be a group in the Founder's Room making Advent Wreaths that you can take home. There will be a group in the kitchen baking cookies for the Cookie Exchange. There will be a group in the Bishop's Hall brewing beer. So many activities – it's going to be great! All are welcome! Please sign up for this meal on the Epiphany website at www.tcote.org/fellowship-learning/family-ministry or email Brian O'Rourke at borourke@tcote.org so we know how many people are coming and what activity you are interested in doing!

BOOK STUDY

Our Wednesday evening book study continues... All are welcome to come and read with us Barbara Brown Taylor's book, An Altar in the World: A Geography of Faith. Wednesday evenings at 7:00 p.m. For more information about this book study, contact the Very Rev. Melissa McCarthy at 818-991-4797 x.24 or e-mail: mmccarthy@tcote.org

This October Page Turners enjoyed delicious treats and a great discussion of Louise Penny's The Beautiful Mystery. "An entire mystery novel centering on Gregorian chants (whose curiously hypnotic allure is called the "beautiful mystery")? Yes, indeed, and in the hands of the masterful Penny, the topic proves every bit as able to transfix readers as the chants do their listeners."—Booklist

Our book for November 21 is C.S. Lewis', Out of the Silent Planet. Here are some reviews: "If wit and wisdom, style and scholarship are requisites to passage through the pearly gates, Mr. Lewis will be among the angels." (New York Times) "This book has real splendor, compelling moments, and a flowing narrative." (The New Yorker) "The most compelling points are the simple conclusions Lewis comes to about human nature and the corrupt world we live in." Dan F. Plan to join us for coffee, treats and good discussion!

Coming Events:

November 21

Out of the Silent Planet, C.S. Lewis

January 23

The Smartest Kids in the World, Amanda Ripley

OWLS - OLDER, WISER, LAITY

OWLs stands for Older Wiser Laity, and this group meets on the second Thursday of every month between October and May. We gather at noon to share lunch and information, and enjoy each other's company. In October we kicked off another OWLs year with a fascinating program about financial planning and security. Our presenters were a Wills and Trust attorney and financial planner from the Conejo Valley, and those OWLs who attended will attest to the benefit they received from the presentation. In November we welcome back Martha Miller with what will certainly be a moving performance of her piece "Anne Frank - Hiding and Writing." As with all of Martha's programs, it is sure to be a packed house, so get your RSVP in early. In December we will celebrate Christmas with a carol sing-along and our now infamous White Elephant gift exchange. We look forward to seeing you all in the coming months.

Susan Lamb, Michelle Ponticelli and Rachel Chittick

Be sure to come back and join us for our future events, and we'll keep you updated with reminders in bulletins and newsletters:

Thursday, November 14: Martha Miller: A One Woman Play - Ann Frank: Hiding and Writing

Thursday, December 12: Annual Christmas Party & White Elephant Gift Exchange!

GRIEF & LOSS SUPPORT GROUP

While we are capable of experiencing joy, expansiveness, and meaning in our lifetime, we are not always prepared to face the trauma and reality of loss when we lose something or someone that has been such an integral part of our lives. This group is available to those who have had a recent loss and want support from those who are sharing a similar experience. We will meet at 6:00 p.m. for a light supper and a time of fellowship followed by an hour of sharing, processing, and communal support. This group will be facilitated by Laurie Burns, MFT. Please e-mail Laurie at lburns@tcote.org for any questions. Meetings are scheduled for the first Tuesdays from 6:00 to 7:30 p.m. We meet in room 5 in Mitchel Hall. If you, or anyone you know, has had a recent loss, we invite you or them to join us!

PASTORAL MINISTRY TEAM AT EPIPHANY

The Pastoral Care Team provides comfort and support for families in our community who are experiencing an illness, hospitalization or death of a loved one. Members of the Pastoral Care team provide support in many ways, including delivering meals, checking in with phone calls and visits, and/or bringing the Eucharist to those who are sick, hospitalized, or homebound. If you would like to be included in the Sunday prayers, would like to request a visit, would like a Lay Eucharistic Minister to share the Eucharist, or if you know of someone in the community in need, please contact the Very Rev. Melissa McCarthy at mmccarthy@tcote.org or (818) 991-4797. All requests are kept confidential.
